Commander's Comments /Recommendations	Note to our new XO of SB04: A message of introduction when making the initial request into someone's Google Documents, then allowing sufficient time for them to respond, would have been helpful and less stressful than the multiple requests, in the middle of the night, of a major holiday. Our former Cyber Security Officer, established an alert system/app that was triggered in the middle of the night from multiple requests by an "unknown" entity. The app deemed it as an attempt to breach our data and sounded the alarm notification. Because Guilds of Requiem, Inc. is an international organization, we must abide by International Privacy Laws and have put appropriate measures in place to alert us to any attempts to gain access to the contents of our Google Drive which includes Google Docs, Sheets, and Slides. If spelling or grammar "corrections" are needed, please use the "Comment" feature to alert us to the requested changes, as we report to several entities and our SPAR Reporting is also documented with our primary organization of Guilds of Requiem, Inc.

STARBASE COMMANDER COMMENTS/RECOMMENDATIONS

*First Officer Lt. Hopkins kept contact (phone and email) to prompt and organized meeting with Jason LeCompte for possible ship formation; meeting included COMM Wood, Lt. Hopkins, Recruit LeCompte, Ensign Hodge and ADM Rose Ciccarone.

*Lt. Hopkins sent various Facebook Messenger messages and emails to Recruits LeCompte and Callahan to keep supportive of new possible runabout and keep Starfleet Command on their minds.

*Lt. Hopkins reached out to Recruit Callahan on several occasions to welcome him and engage in Star Trek conversations; she spoke with Bradley via telephone for 1-hour 2/19 to explain Starfleet and answer questions.

*Lt. Hopkins gave info to each of the above about how to transfer to USS Thompson if they so decide. She also asked Lt. Stanfield to add them to the USS Thompson FB Chat.

*Lt. Hopkins attended USS Thompson zoom meeting 2/20, and provided feedback to COC Wood and Lt. Stanfield.
