Space Station Requiem

Away Missions:

Hosted the Ferengi gift exchange at the Guilds of Requiem Yule Celebration on Dec 21st, 2019

Began work on the chapter's Official Charter and Bylaws. Space Space Requiem will be a non-profit under the Guilds of Requiem non-profit organizational umbrella, with the goal of community fun and service. Future meetings will be held online at 3 pm on the third Saturday of every month utilizing the Zoom meeting platform. Archived videos will be uploaded/linked off of the webpage, or possibly a youtube channel, based on file size and content. Guilds of Requiem has a paid account with Zoom.us that we are utilizing. All entities umbrellaed under them are monitored to keep a "PG-13 family friendly" ratings and planned activities. "Requiem After Dark" is used to signify events that are not family friendly.

We will be checking with local businesses in Bandera County, Kendall County, Kerr County, and Bexar County to host an activity once per quarter. The Marketplace is undergoing unplanned construction and will be closed for an undetermined amount of time. The goal is to keep activities affordable, free is best, as we discovered many who are thinking of joining are on fixed incomes with limited transportation, in all areas deemed "local" to us. These activities will occur based on location availability and activities already happening at that venue.

Recruiting Activities:

Made contact with local gaming group (pokemon, D&D, and Magic the Gatherings). They are interested in cooping activities.

Community/Charity Events:

Several potential members also helped stuff gift bags for Warrior's Heart Veteran Recovery Program on December 21st. 60 gift bags for men, 5 for women, and 9 Service Dog bags packed with donations from Guilds of Requiem, vendors from that weekend, members of the cocommunity and area businesses. Members of the local community answered our call for assistance with adding last minute donations to gift bags, so that each bag ended up being unique. This is year three for Guilds of Requiem to work cooperatively with Bandera Beverage Barn to make the holidays extra special.
